BAPTISTS RAISE $180,000

FOR MISSION BOARD DEBT

Campaign Completed in Two Months of Vigorous Effort, Giving Demonstration of Missionary Interest.

botthern Baptists have just given a remarkable demonstration, it is pointed out, of missionary interest by raising, in record time, $180,000 to pay off the intellement of the foreign mission board. A little over two months ago a vigorous campaign to this end was begun, and the executive committee of the board has just announced its successful completion. Commenting on the remarkable achievement, the committee says:

"Surely God was in this movement."

"Surely God was in this movement."

He gave the spirit of liberality to the churches and guided in unmistakable ways. Upon Him we have relied and He has been a very present help.

"Our people have been very sacrificial in this time of need. They railled round the standard and were willing in the day of God's power. We have a great God and a great brotherhood.

"This campaign demonstrated that foreign missions are very close to the hearts of southern Baptists. They love the lost world and, like their Misster, are ready to suffer for it.

"It also gave us a new sense of solidarity. From Maryland to Texas, and from Missouri to Florida, our hearts beat as one. Men and women, preachers and laymen, young and old, rich and poor, combined their energies to accomplish this task.

ANNIVERSARY OF FOUNDING OF ZION CHURCH AND COMING OF PASTOR BEING OBSERVED

Congregation Has Been Organized Fifty-two Years and Rev. W. J. Howard Has Been in Charge for Thirty Years.

The fifty-second anniversary of Zion
Baptist Church (colored), on F street between 3d and 4½ streets southwest, and the thirtieth anniversary of the coming of Pastor Rev. W. J. Howard, is being celebrated. The observance began Sunday and will continue until September 25.

A brief history of this colored church, one of the oldest in the District, is related by the pastor, as follows: "In July, 1861, a few of Zion's travelers met in a prayer-meeting capacity and decided to keep up the old Baptist worship, which they had so long and so well enjoyed in Fredericksburg, Va, and vicinity. This congregation grew rapidly, and in 1863 organized a Sunday and day school in Jackson's schoolhouse. Delaware avenue and L street southwest, and there remained until 1867, when they bought Simpson's old feed store, which they remodeled fortyseven years ago, and have since bdilit two additional houses of worship.

"Rev. Walker baptimed persons in Rock creek,
where, with a large council of churches,
both white and colored organizations recognized Zion Baptist Church as a regular church of the Baptist faith.

"After these fifty and odd years only one of this first church council is living.

All of the first travelses and deacons
have passed away.

"The church began with nine memship, which they had so long and so we passed away.

"The Sunday school of the church is older than the church, being organized of July 8, 1863, by the Rev. George W.
Jackson and reorganized in 1871 by the Rev. John Shippen. The Christian Endeavor Society was organized in 1871 by the

GOD'S ETERNAL LOVE

In that better land love will have wondrous and glorious surprises in store for us, but never again will it be expended in an amazing in rebukes, reproofs or even in the gentle chiding of the Holy Spirit, There the same boundless, inexpressible love that is here vicariously bestowed to rescue us from ourselves and from sin will be wholly untrammeled in its going forth. Then its ultimate object, its real purpose, the work which now suffers human interference, the production of everlasting joy for the creatures of God, will receive love's full and undivided attention. God's exhaustless reservoir of love will be perpetually pouring forth for the one purpose of dispensing eternal happiness.-G. A. Roberts in Review and Herald.
